

Center Point Public Library's Request for Reconsideration of Library Materials (Please Print)

The Library welcomes expressions of opinion from Center Point residents concerning materials selected or not selected for the collection. If a Center Point resident questions the content, tone or placement of an item in the collection, the Library Board will review this request in accordance with the Library's Collection Development Policy. Please note that submitting a completed Request for Reconsideration of Library Materials form makes it subject to public record laws as part of the Open Meetings Act and the Freedom of Information Act.
